Commentary:

This was our first shoot since 12 October 2019, following the Covid-19 lockdown on 23 March 2020. To our delight, the shoot was greeted with bright sunshine, average seasonal temperatures and rifles that were, thankfully, unaffected by rust! (October 12 was very wet.)

The date also coincided with the funeral of Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, who died on 9 April 2021 - A one minute silence was held in tribute, starting at 15.00. The drama of the occasion was emphasised by the ghostly silence on the Century range and ALL the flags falling to zero wind. Very unearthly!

A tricky wind situation - Good practice for the wind coaches..

Congratulations to John Simmons for top score of the day. Comiserations to Andy Moore who ran out of time for his last shot at 600 and had to convert a sighter.

Good practice session - Better luck on the competition front next time !
